

RIVERBASH MUSIC FESTIVAL

JUNE 29, 2019, 2-4PM

MACEACHRON WATERFRONT PARK, HASTINGS-ON-HUDSON, NY

FRIENDS & FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

RiverBash is a FREE family-friendly environmental festival celebrating our Hudson River and the Rivertowns communities. Bash the Trash, in association with River Sprit Music and the Village of Hastings-on-Hudson, is proud to present it's acclaimed eco-ensemble, along with tons of activities for kids and families, rockin' tunes played on instruments built from recycled and reused materials, plus acrobatics, dance, fashion-show, and a riverfront clean-up... all with the backdrop of the beautiful Hudson River and Palisades!

Performances by "The Junksters", "BTT Big Band" (with 17+ performers), MESUs (Mobile Electric String Units) as well as pop-up parades. Bash the Trash is based in Hastings, and for over 30 years has provided performances and spectacular events to organizations across the country, including Carnegie Hall, Kennedy Center, the American Museum of Natural History, Clearwater Festival, Chautauqua Institution and many others. Food, Fun, FREE!
